

DEAR PRAYING FRIENDS & FAMILY,

December 2024

Hello everyone! This is Lucy. Ever since day one, I've been watching my parents write our newsletters. This month, the Lord has put it on my heart to write our newsletter. I am sooo excited to share happenings through the eyes of a Kid Missionary!

You're missing out! If everyone knew what missions is like, I feel like everyone would want to be missionaries. You would see the Lord work in ways that you never knew he could work, share His word with people most would never meet, & pray for those who may never know Him unless you go & seek. HOW COOL IS THAT!!! It sounds like a mission that needs to be accomplished.

The last couple of months in the States, we went to youth camp, many conferences, and church activities & services. Daddy even got to preach at Campus Church! I asked if he was nervous to preach in front of so many people. He said no because he was doing this for the Lord, and all he wants to do is bring glory to Him. I thought that was such a good mindset to have while doing something for the Lord that most people would be nervous for or scared to do. Good job, Daddy!!! Another highlight was Daddy being the keynote speaker at Parkview Baptist Church, our amazing home & sending church.

Recently, the Lord has used a problem with the RV to witness to a Muslim man. On the Uber ride back from the shop, Dad told our driver, Mr. Hameed, that we are missionaries. Mr. Hameed started talking about Allah & gave Dad a book called "Understanding Islam." He said, "I will pray to my god, and you pray to yours. Then we will see who is the real God." It was like an Elijah-on-Mount-Carmel moment. Dad accepted his challenge, gave him our prayer card, & asked Mr. Hameed to email him. They have been e-mailing regularly; please pray that Mr. Hameed will come to know Jesus as his savior.

Being back was so much fun! We have been able to spend time with friends and family this last month being in the States. Of course the goodbyes are sad, but I like to say, "If it is hard to say goodbye, then that means you had a good time." Truly it is not a goodbye but a see you later. Later can mean a short time, but it can also mean a long time. This teaches me to enjoy and be thankful for every second of wherever God has me at any moment. Philippians 4:11

Now that our furlough has come to an end, I just wanted to say thank you!!! Thank you to everyone who supports us and prays for us. Thank you to everyone who has hosted our family. Even though you all might not be able to come to the Philippines with us, we are proud to represent you all in the Philippines. Just know that you have a part in what my family and I are doing. I hope that you all found this letter encouraging, and I hope that the Lord will burden you to do something for Him. THANK YOU!!!
