

January 2025

Happy New Year! We hope everyone had a full and wonderful Christmas this year. We were blessed to spend much of the month with family. Our daughters enjoyed receiving their gifts but also giving gifts and being around a lot of their cousins. The grandparents' home was full of lots of giggles, more than a little chaos, and plenty of fun.

We were also able to spend more time than normal with our home church, which is a treat. We attended several of the special Christmas services, and Amber had the honor of speaking at the ladies' annual Christmas Brunch.

1 Merry Christmas and Happy New Year from our family to yours!

It is a great blessing to soak up these memories when we remember we'll be on the field for the next several years, but we are looking forward to what those years hold for us and especially this new year. As the calendar turns and we pass the halfway point of our furlough, we are filled with anticipation and a sense of leaning into what comes next. Our departure date is coming soon, and before we know it will be March and we'll be boarding the plane to return to Honduras.

As is typical of this holiday season, we had only a few meetings with churches this month but we greatly enjoyed them. It is such a blessing to get to see our supporting churches and tell them thank you for all they have done for our family and for the cause of Christ. They have been patiently supporting and praying for us through deputation and language school, waiting with us for the day when we can officially begin a new work.

We have been waiting for this year a long time now, anticipating starting our first church; and now we are finally in our last steps to that goal! We want to thank everyone for your help this year, the years past, and all of the years ahead. We hope that God blesses you in your 2025. May it be a year of drawing close to Him and seeing more and more of His goodness.

Serving Christ,
